TOPIC		Policid Troops in Cischener		phintes and description of a gain
, , , , ,		PT41 Thath in Johnson		and the state of t
			en ander den de entre filipe de la completa de la c	25X1
DATE C	E 00	NTENT Prior to mid-February 1951
DAIL	n 00	25X1		William William Color Service and Administration Up. of
		UATE PREPAREI	26 October 1951 25X1	CT-MINISTERNI, PROVINCE NO. (PC-TON) - PROSERVED LA LIGAD SERVED LA LIGAD SERV
מאטבר		C FINAL COLUMN		Parada, manda, manda
		ENCLOSURES (NO. & TYPE)
REMAR	KS			Co-states essent states quicked states and a Code sustained sector, y
100 to 10	·		managene engeren i managene i Stadiografia della distribution de la companie della della managene i della comp	gram, miller i printiderschissoskeptens dessa de tar taratur, (), p. serbie diperrat, our as
Falledy 1. Showever imposed	Cathalan Majagay e		дом от на распоравания на технородина заправа на пред наста на пред на пред на пред на пред на пред на пред на На пред на пред	manufact and supplementations and antipaction with the children of the contract of the contrac
	-	25X1	· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·	and designative accordance the states, sedemoken to se
İ
		Prior to the first part of February 1951, the four of which served as hitlets and one as	-storied red brick buil	ratuga, four of which served as billets and one as a faced this street. Other billets, some of wh by early 1951, were located farther to the rewere also observed. Soveral large otorehouse installation to the north, along the road to	regimental headquarters tich were not yet recons ar of the barracks area -like brick buildings	s building, structed
X1	2.	four of which served as billets and one as a faced this street. Other billets, some of wh by early 1951, were located farther to the rewere also observed. Soveral large otorehouse installation to the north, along the road to	regimental headquarters sich were not yet recons ar of the barracks area like brick buildings a Katy (R 53/K 76).  Tas somehow connected with ied. All the soldiers uniforms. Returning freeches. In the post are long trousers with laby a thin silver cordulats were the same coling service caps with ye color. About 100 reconded to the same number of reservice caps with yellow the same number of reservice.	s building, structed a. Stables adjoined the  ith an agency were young ron the rea and at aced shoes and were mounted lor, as the vellowish cruits arrived
X1		four of which served as billets and one as a faced this street. Other billets, some of wh by early 1951, were located farther to the rewere also observed. Several large storehouse installation to the north, along the road to regiment win Plock (Q 53/K 12). No details were specified on active duty. They were brownish gray maneuvers they were seen wearing boots and broccabar practice, however, they constantly were buckled puttees. Triangular patches bordered on the blouse buttoning at the front. The epa blouse. Soldiers off duty were observed wear brown bands. The collar patches were the sam at the post in October 1950. Approximately the discharged. Neither Soviet officers nor Soviet discharged.	regimental headquarters sich were not yet recons ar of the barracks area are followed by the brick buildings at Katy (R 53/K 76).  Tas somehow connected with the soldiers uniforms. Returning frusches. In the post are elong trousers with laby a thin silver cordulets were the same colding service caps with ye color. About 100 recome the same number of reserved instruction personned to faddle horses. Ret Pack horses carrying Horse-drawn dump cart of single motor vehicles and sedans were obsessing the pack horse to be senting the unit	s building, structed a. Stables adjoined the  ith an agency were young ron the rea and at aced shoes and were mounted lor, as the relicwish cruits arrived rvists were al were at- aurning from ag drums with as were used as, one four of which served as billets and one as a faced this street. Other billets, some of which searly 1951, were located farther to the rewere also observed. Soveral large storehouse installation to the north, along the road to regiment with Pluck (Q 53/K 12). No details were specified on active duty. They were brownish gray maneuvers they were seen wearing boots and brownish practice, however, they constantly were buckled puttees. Triangular patches bordered on the blouse buttoning at the front. The epablouse. Soldiers off duty were observed wear brown bands. The collar patches were the sam at the post in October 1950. Approximately the discharged. Neither Soviet officers nor Sovitached to the unit.  The regiment was equipped with a large number the 1950 maneuvers, the men were or horseback telephone cables were also seen at that time, to bransport supplies. Only a limited number ambulance, and an unidentified number of trucks ame occasion. At practice near the barracks	regimental headquarters sich were not yet recons ar of the barracks area are followed by the brick buildings at Katy (R 53/K 76).  Tas somehow connected with the soldiers uniforms. Returning frusches. In the post are elong trousers with laby a thin silver cordulets were the same colding service caps with ye color. About 100 recome the same number of reserved instruction personned to faddle horses. Ret Pack horses carrying Horse-drawn dump cart of single motor vehicles and sedans were obsessing the pack horse to be senting the unit	s building, structed a. Stables adjoined the  ith an agency were young ron the rea and at aced shoes and were mounted lor, as the relicwish cruits arrived rvists were al were at- aurning from ag drums with as were used as, one four of which served as billets and one as a faced this street. Other billets, some of which early 1951, were located farther to the rewere also observed. Several large storehouse installation to the north, along the road to regiment with Plock (Q 53/K 12). No details were specified on active duty. They were brownish gray maneuvers they were seen wearing boots and brownish practice, however, they constantly were buckled puttees. Triangular patches bordered on the blouse buttoning at the front. The epablouse. Soldiers off duty were observed wear brown bands. The collar patches were the same at the post in October 1950. Approximately the discharged. Neither Seviet officers nor Sevitached to the unit.  The regiment was equipped with a large number the 1950 maneuvers, the men were or horseback telephone cables were also seen at that time, to bransport supplies. Only a limited number ambulance, and an unidentified number of trucks herses. The practices were confined to infant	regimental headquarters sich were not yet recons ar of the barracks area are followed by the brick buildings at Katy (R 53/K 76).  Tas somehow connected with the soldiers uniforms. Returning frusches. In the post are elong trousers with laby a thin silver cordulets were the same colding service caps with ye color. About 100 recome the same number of reserved instruction personned to faddle horses. Ret Pack horses carrying Horse-drawn dump cart of single motor vehicles and sedans were obsessing the pack horse to be senting the unit	s building, structed a. Stables adjoined the  ith an agency were young ron the rea and at aced shoes and were mounted lor, as the relicwish cruits arrived rvists were al were at- aurning from ag drums with as were used as, one
		four of which served as billets and one as a faced this street. Other billets, some of which early 1951, were located farther to the rewere also observed. Several large storehouse installation to the north, along the road to regiment with Plock (Q 53/K 12). No details were specified on active duty. They were brownish gray maneuvers they were seen wearing boots and brownish practice, however, they constantly were buckled puttees. Triangular patches bordered on the blouse buttoning at the front. The epablouse. Soldiers off duty were observed wear brown bands. The collar patches were the same at the post in October 1950. Approximately the discharged. Neither Seviet officers nor Sevitached to the unit.  The regiment was equipped with a large number the 1950 maneuvers, the men were or horseback telephone cables were also seen at that time, to bransport supplies. Only a limited number ambulance, and an unidentified number of trucks herses. The practices were confined to infant	regimental headquarters sich were not yet recons ar of the barracks area are followed by the brick buildings at Katy (R 53/K 76).  Tas somehow connected with the soldiers uniforms. Returning frusches. In the post are elong trousers with laby a thin silver cordulets were the same colding service caps with ye color. About 100 recome the same number of reserved instruction personned to faddle horses. Ret Pack horses carrying Horse-drawn dump cart of single motor vehicles and sedans were obsessing the pack horse to be senting the unit	s building, structed a. Stables adjoined the ith an agency were young ron the rea and at aced shoes and were mounted lor, as the relicwish cruits arrived rvists were all were at-
6X1		four of which served as billets and one as a faced this street. Other billets, some of which searly 1951, were located farther to the rewere also observed. Soveral large storehouse installation to the north, along the road to regiment with Pluck (Q 53/K 12). No details were specified on active duty. They were brownish gray maneuvers they were seen wearing boots and brownish practice, however, they constantly were buckled puttees. Triangular patches bordered on the blouse buttoning at the front. The epablouse. Soldiers off duty were observed wear brown bands. The collar patches were the sam at the post in October 1950. Approximately the discharged. Neither Soviet officers nor Sovitached to the unit.  The regiment was equipped with a large number the 1950 maneuvers, the men were or horseback telephone cables were also seen at that time, to bransport supplies. Only a limited number ambulance, and an unidentified number of trucks ame occasion. At practice near the barracks	regimental headquarters tich were not yet reconstant of the barracks are said and the brick buildings at Katy (R 53/K 76).  The somehow connected with the soldiers uniforms. Returning freeches. In the post are long trousers with laby a thin silver cordulats were the same colding service caps with yet color. About 100 reconstant the same number of reserved instruction personned in the same number of the same number of reserved instruction personned in the same number of the same numbe	s building, structed a. Stables adjoined the ith an agency were young ron the rea and at aced shoes and were mounted lor, as the relicwish cruits arrived rvists were all were at-

	Approved For Release 2003/08/122504-RDP82-00457R0093001600	008-1
	CONFI
		25X1
lı.	besides the army unit, a motorized Add unit, approximated a company, also belonged to the post. It was locat southern sector of the city, in two single-story brick on the south side of ul. Crilska, west of the cemetery in the direction of Przasnyez (R 54/K 97), the men gen another unit from the vicinity of Ciechanow. About 24 observed with the two units. The soldiers carried only submachine guns. In 1950, querilla activities were stin the area around Ciechanow.  on a government-controlled sugar factory, another raid of a cooperative society, the murder of a Party function plot to sabotage the fast train from Warsaw. 	ed in the buildings, larching out erally joined vehicles were rifles and eraid 25	5X1
5.	The military district headquarters was located in the former German Jehrmeldeamt (recruiting office), on the ul. Orilska, almost opposite the KBJ billets. The UB of was located on the east side of ul. Gen Zemierskiego, a north of the county administration building. The MO district was located on Kosciuszki Scuare.	north side of district office
6.	ε member of the 1928 class, the spring of 1950 for military duty with a KEW unit in E 25). He was still at the same post in February 1951.	Ontomode (O M)
4+ -:	of this unit were red cap bands. It is believed that the unit is a cavalry unit, since a previous Hovember 1950 referred also to the unit in Plock, which with the unit concerned, as cavalry. In montioned number 11 only in connection with the 11th In longs to the 4th Inf Div. The 4th Inf Div is believed the Krotoszin area.  Comment. Provious information on a KET comment.	is connected Previous reports f Regt, which be- to be located in present report.

25X1

25X1 25X1

25X1

25X1 25X1